

Carlos BATALLAS

Professional experience

Self-Employed

- Board Member and Executive Committee Member of the Movimiento por la Paz (MPDL)
- Adjunct Professor of International Relations at IE University, Madrid
- Volunteer at the International Humanitarian Law Center of Spanish Red Cross
- Member of the EMCC (European Mentoring and Coaching Association)
- Editorial Board Member of "Tiempo de Paz"
- Individual Coaching and Internal Coaching with United Word Coaches

International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC; www.icrc.org)

* Head of Mission Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan (January 2020 – January 2023)

- Representing ICRC in Kyrgyzstan, managing relations with all levels of authorities and diplomatic corps.
- Oversight of prison programs, restoring family contacts, and standard ICRC activities.
- Cooperation with the Kyrgyz Red Crescent, German Red Cross, Swiss Red Cross, Italian Red Cross, Red Cross Federation, and international community.
- Leading a team of 45 staff.

* Head of Sub-Delegation Goma, RD Congo (February 2019 – November 2019)

- Managed the North Kivu Office, engaging with national political and security actors.
- Led a team of approximately 300 people (including 46 expatriates).
- Designed and executed operations in a highly volatile security environment. Expanded activities to reach more beneficiaries in hard-to-access areas.

* Head of Mission Aden, Yemen (June 2017 – November 2018)

- Managed ICRC Mission in Aden, with relations with political and security actors.
- Led a team of around 100 individuals, including 16 expatriates, in an extremely volatile security environment.
- Established and expanded networking with authorities, political/security groups, non-state and other actors to improve and secure ICRC operations
- Realigned the Mission's systems, processes, strategies, etc. All in a growing structure in political importance, human resources and level of operations.

* Project Lead International Assignment Planning (HR), Geneva (2014 – 2017)

- Ensured the implementation and delivery of a new process for managing international assignments.
- Integrated best practices and lessons learned identified into the IAP framework and policies to ensure a robust process in the HR Department.
- Conducted 4 compendiums (about 300 positions and 600 applicants), implemented a new track 1 streamlined, providing guidelines for the same track.

* Deputy Head of Delegation, Amman (2013 - 2014)

- Supervision of Assistance and Cooperation Departments. Operations in the Eastern border with Syria, with the opening of an SD in Rwayshid.
- Budgeted extension to respond to Syria crisis.
- Field Coordination, focal point for security and networking with UN and diplomatic corps.

* Head of Office, Iraq (Based in Amman) – (2011 - 2013)

- Managed and supervised an office with 20 expatriates and 40 national staff providing support to ICRC activities inside Iraq. Closing of the office in 2013.
- Managed human resources for the Iraq delegation (around 100 expatriates).
- Communication and representation of the ICRC with external contacts in Amman.

* Head of Mission, Guatemala (2009 – 2011)

- Re-evaluated ICRC relevance and status in Guatemala. Managed an office in a sensitive political context. Implemented a project on missing persons. Lobbied civil society and authorities for parliamentary approval of a missing persons law.
- Launched youth violence prevention and migration programs. Worked with police and military on Use of Force. Cooperation with Guatemala RC (Medical brigades/HIV prevention).

- * Deputy Head of Operations. Geneva, ICRC HQ. (2006 – 2009)
 - Reorganised Balkan operations. Rationalised ICRC's presence in Central Europe by closing Budapest Delegation. Managed operations in Western and Central Europe across 7 country delegations.
 - Negotiated with authorities' acceptance of ICRC's activities in Turkey.
 - Conducted political analysis of the region. Planned and implemented adequate responses to any crisis in the field.
 - * Deputy Head of Delegation. Israel, Occupied and Autonomous Territories. (2004 – 2006)
 - Held general responsibility for all delegation activities, maintained political and military contacts with Israeli authorities, civil society, and networked with the diplomatic community. Oversaw security-related issues in Israel and Occupied Territories.
 - Supervised approximately 70 expatriated staff and 300 local staff
 - Three months as Head of Delegation a.i.
 - * Deputy Head of Delegation. Bosnia and Herzegovina. (2002-2004)
 - Re motivated a team of 15 people. Rebuilt bridges for better delegation functionality. Oversaw 60 expat and local staff.
 - Persuaded authorities, civil society, and media to shift direction of the Republika Srpska Red Cross and secure support for finding missing persons.
 - * Head of Mission. Namibia (2000-2002)
 - Obtained authorities agreement to open a new ICRC office. Engaged in political lobbying with authorities, civil society and Diplomatic corps to carry out ICRC activities.
 - Negotiated and gained access to security detainees, launched assistance programmes, promoted IHL among police and military. Cooperated with the Namibian Red Cross, provided tracing services, HIV prevention.
 - * Head of Sub delegation. Huambo, Angola (1998-1999)
 - Developed and implemented a food aid and agricultural program (seeds/tools) for 300,000 people. Networked with military and civilian authorities
 - Led a team of 21 expatriates and 400 local employees.
 - * Field Delegate. Colombia, Democratic Republic of Congo and Rwanda (1996-1998)
 - Relations with non-structured armed groups (guerrilla, paramilitary) promoting respect for IHL. Networked with military, civilian authorities and civil society. Visited security detainees, dissemination of IHL to civilian and military, humanitarian assistance for internally displaced persons.
 - Designed and executed food and medical programmes for internally displaced persons. Managed teams between 5 to 20 local employees.
 - * International Programmes Coordinator (1991-1996)
- ONG MPDL (MOVIMIENTO POR LA PAZ, EL DESARME Y LA LIBERTAD) - Spain
- Established the organization's Humanitarian Department.
 - Organized seminars, meetings with civil society. Drafted, managed, and evaluated ECHO and UN programs.

Education

- ◆ EMCC Senior Practitioner (December 2023); ICF ACC (September 2022)
- ◆ Licensed Ikigai Coach. Ikigai® Coaching Institute (October 2022)
- ◆ Master in strategic human resources management (July 2013). Universidad Camilo José Cela (Madrid, Spain).
- ◆ Advanced Management Program (AMP 2006). Instituto de Empresa – Business School, Madrid. April 2006. Improving Negotiation Skills (2007), Instituto de Empresa: Team Management (2008)
- ◆ Bachelor's and Doctoral Studies in Political Science and Sociology, specializing in International Relations and Political Science, 1985-1989. Complutense University of Madrid, Madrid.

Language skills

- ◆ Spanish: Native; English: Fluent – Working language; French: Fluent – Working language; Russian: A2; Portuguese: Basic.